COMMERCE OF THE UNITED STATES WITH EUROPE.

The following series of tables has been prepared for the purpose of showing the growth and development of the trade of the United States with the several countries of Europe, in response to a resolution of the first session of the Fifty-second Congress, 1892.

From 1790 to 1820 the Government records of the total values of our imports are fairly complete, but do not show, except for a few years, the articles imported. They show, however, domestic exports by articles, but do not distinguish the values of merchandise from coin and bullion imported and exported, nor the value of the commerce with each country.

By the act of February 10, 1820, a statistical division was created in the office of the Register of the Treasury for the purpose of collecting and publishing annually information in regard to our foreign commerce. Since that date there are complete records with respect to imports and exports of articles from and to each country, showing separately imports and exports of merchandise from coin and bullion.

The following tables are embraced in the series:

First. For the period from 1790 to 1820, the total values of exports from the United States to each country of Europe are exhibited. As before stated, the official records do not show the values of imports from each country prior to 1820.

Second. For the period from 1820 to 1892, tables are presented exhibiting the total values of imports and exports of merchandise and specie, respectively, in the trade with each country.

Third. For the period from 1871 to 1890, inclusive, a series of tables is presented showing the imports and exports of each article of merchandise in the trade with each country of Europe, annually.

TOTAL VALUES OF EXPORTS OF MERCHANDISE FROM THE UNITED STATES TO EUROPE AND ALL OTHER COUNTRIES, RESPECTIVELY, WITH THE PERCENTAGES OF TOTAL VALUES TO EUROPE, DURING EACH FISCAL YEAR FROM 1790 TO 1820, INCLUSIVE.

IMPORTS AND EXPORTS OF FOREIGN MERCHANDISE

IN THE TRADE OF THE

UNITED STATES WITH COUNTRIES OF EUROPE,

1871-1890.

GENERAL EXPLANATIONS.

The classification of foreign commodities in the following tables has been considerably affected by the frequent changes in the tariff which occurred between 1870 and 1884, rendering difficult a comparison of the imports of all articles through the entire period of twenty years embraced in the tables.

The following tariff acts were enacted during the period:

General acts—

July 14, 1870, took effect January 1, 1871.

June 6, 1872, took effect August 1, 1872.

March 3, 1883, took effect July 1, 1883.

Special acts—

May 1, 1872, to make coffee and tea free after July 1, 1872.

July 1, 1879, to make salts of quinine and sulphate of quinine free from date.

Schedules for the classification of foreign merchandise in the monthly returns by countries were slightly changed, to conform to tariff acts in 1871, 1872, and 1873, and new schedules were issued to take effect August 31, 1878, and July 1, 1883, respectively.

The classification of articles of domestic exports, however, has run almost uniformly through the entire period of twenty years, presenting fewer difficulties in making comparisons of exports of articles for this period than are met with in imports and exports of foreign merchandise.
